NAPA/SONOMA ELEMENTS 2003

92

"Virtually all the wines produced by Artesa are sleek and high-class, but without the hefty price tag you would expect from wines of such pedigree. Elements is a new wine that captures the essence of the California trend to blend Bordeaux and Rhone Valley grape varieties. This one combines cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc and malbec from the lineup of traditional Bordeaux varieties with syrah and grenache, which are typical of the Rhone Valley. It's bold and spicy and shows plenty of sweet red and black berry fruit aromas and a superb structure and length in the mouth..."
