BUYING GUIDE

86 Septima 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon (Mendoza); $12. The only thing holding this value-priced Cab back is that it seems slightly overripe, which results in a bouquet that's mildly cooked and grainy and a palate that's rooty and sweet. But if you like softer tannins and flavors of root beer, chocolate, and spice, this has plenty of that. Imported by A.V. Brands, Inc.
